

Please do not eliminate the right of our state to enforce our more stringent 'no call' law. Having been on the list since its inception, I can tell you that it has worked great. I do not want to be solicited - I am an educated consumer and if I feel I need information I can get it without being harrassed at home. Please do not limit Wisconsin's ability to protect its citizens.